Enquirer Women of Year support 2012 World Choir Games

Contributed By: Michael Perry | Vehr Communications

Francie Hiltz of Indian Hill and Mary Ellen Cody of Covington were among the Enquirer Women of the Year who attended a March 25 organizational fund-raising meeting in support of the 7th World Choir Games, the "Olympics of Choral Music" that will be in Cincinnati USA on July 4-14, 2012.

Hiltz is co-chair of the Philanthropic Engagement team, and Cody is co-chair of the Community Engagement team.

Enquirer Women of the Year are helping the Games with fund-raising, advocacy, marketing and hospitality. The Charlotte R. Schmidlapp Trust announced in January a $100,000 matching grant in support of an Enquirer Women of the Year Initiative for the 2012 Games.

"It's a privilege to work with women who have such energy and enthusiasm, in addition to tremendous organizational and leadership skills," says Shannon Carter, U.S. co-chair of the WCG and a former Enquirer Woman of the Year.
